We appreciate your interest in our website and our company. Where we provide links to other websites, we do so for information purposes only. We are not responsible for the content or accessibility of any other websites or pages linking to or from our website. The protection of personal data in the collection, processing and use during your visit to our website is an important concern. Your data is protected in accordance with legal requirements. Below is information on what data is collected during your visit to our website and how it is used:

Every access to our homepage and each download of a file on our website are logged. The storage serves internal system-related and statistical purposes. Recorded: name of the file, date and time of access, data volume transferred, notification of successful download, web browser and requesting domain. Additionally, the IP addresses of the computers are logged. In some cases, cookies are created on your PC. These are small files that allow us to control technical processes, for example. Generally, we use cookies for technical purposes, personal data are thus not collected, processed or used. Additional personal data is only collected if you provide this information voluntarily, eg as part of an inquiry or registration. Then you are in front of the collection of the data explicitly in the appropriate places.

Insofar as you have provided us with personal data, we use it only to respond to your inquiries, to process contracts concluded with you and for technical administration. Your personal information will be divulged to third parties or otherwise transferred only if it serves the purpose of the contract - for example, the transfer of order data to suppliers - is necessary for billing purposes is required or you have previously agreed. You have the right to revoke your consent with future effect at any time. To send an e-mail to info\(at\)hilgendorf.nethilgendorf.net) or contact by mail to the address below. The deletion of stored personal data, if you withdraw your consent to storage, if their knowledge to fulfill the purpose of the regulation is no longer necessary or if their storage is inadmissible for other legal reasons.

Every time a user accesses our web site and every time a file is downloaded, data is temporarily stored in a log file via this process. Stored data is evaluated anonymously and for internal purposes only for the purpose of continuously improving our web content. No personal evaluation is carried out. In particular, a data set containing the following information is stored upon each user access:

- IP address used
- Operating system used
- Browser used

- Access time
- The web sites that you visit when on our site
- The web sites from which you visit our site (where conveyed)
- Data volume transmitted

This website uses the Google AdWords online advertising program and Google AdWords conversion tracking. The conversion tracking cookie is set when a user clicks on a Google-served ad. These cookies lose their validity after 30 days and are not used for personal identification. If the user visits certain pages of this website and the cookie has not expired yet, Google and we can recognize that the user clicked on the ad and was redirected to this page. Each Google AdWords customer receives a different cookie. Cookies can not be tracked through AdWords advertisers' websites. The information gathered using the conversion cookie is used to generate conversion statistics for AdWords advertisers who have opted for conversion tracking. Customers are told the total number of users who clicked on their ad and were redirected to a conversion tracking tag page. However, they do not receive information that personally identifies users. If you do not want to participate in tracking, you can opt-out of this by easily disabling the Google Conversion Tracking cookie through its Internet browser under User Preferences. For more information about Google's privacy policy, visit the following Internet address: <http://www.google.de/policies/privacy/>.

This website uses Matomo, an open source software for statistical analysis of visitor traffic. Matomo uses "cookies", text files that are stored on your computer, to analyze the use of the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website are stored on the provider's server in Germany. The IP address is being anonymized immediately after processing and prior to storage. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, disable the tracking. We point out, however, that in this case you may not be able to use all features of this website.

Manage tracking:

Your contact details will only be collected if you use the contact form to send us a notification or an enquiry. Your details will only be collected to the extent required and to fulfil the stated purpose.

Areas of our web site contain links to other web sites. We make reasonable efforts to check these links. The company is not responsible for the content or the assurance of data protection on the sites linked by us.

For reasons of security and for protecting the transfer of confidential content that you send us, this site uses SSL encryption. An encrypted connection is recognizable by the fact that the address line in the browser changes from "http://" to "https://" and by the padlock icon in your browser line.

Third parties are unable to read the data that you send us if SSL encryption is activated.
